Chinese Envoys Honor Strawn

International Group Elects American Chairman

Delegations from Thirteen Nations at Session

Extraterritoriality Issues Up for Discussion

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

PEKING, Jan. 12.—Silas H. Strawn of Chicago, American delegate, was elected chairman of the international commission to investigate the question of extraterritoriality in China at the inaugural session of the commission today.

Mr. Strawn, in a speech following his unanimous choice by the delegates representing thirteen nations, said:

"I do not see in this a personal honor, but recognition of the place of my country in the movement to accord a new status for China." He added that he was proud to represent his country on this commission.

The session opened with frolicsome, top-hatted pomp usual with international semidiplomatic gatherings in the Chu Jen Tang Building, the Forbidden City, where the customs conference was held. Dr. Wang Chung Hui of the Hague world court, China's delegate to the commission, opened the meeting. He called on Ma Chung Wu, Minister of Justice, to make an address of welcome.

During the course of his brief speech, Minister Ma Chung Wu said:

"It is conceded at all sides that the status of foreigners in China calls for a readjustment. Since China is the only great nation where the anomaly of extraterritoriality continues."

He called attention to the new evil and criminal codes in use in China and the new judicial system, with trained lawyers and judges and modern prisons. Thus he convinced that the commission would see as a result of its investigation that the "extraterritorial regime in China has outlived its usefulness."

"We all recognize the fact that the extraterritorial regime was introduced in this country simply as a modus vivendi and therefore is destined to abrogation on the removal of the conditions which called it into being."

It is not expected that the commissioners will leave Peking to tour the provinces until the committee has made a study of the new codes on judicial procedure, etc.

GEN. LI REPORTED MOVING ON TIEN-TSIN

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)

LONDON, Jan. 12.—The Evening News reports from Tientsin, China, that Gen. Li Ching Ling, whose Chihli forces were recently defeated by Feng Yu-hsiang, has mustered 40,000 men in the Province of Shantung and is preparing to attack Tientsin.

Troops are said to be approaching Tientsin about seventy miles south of Tien-Tsin. Interference of railway service on the main line in Shantung Province is reported, indicating extensive troop movements.

INDIANS GARNER PEYOTE

Band from Oklahoma, Refused Right to Import Drug from Mexico, Get Supply in Texas

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.), Jan. 12.—About 100 miles west of this city several Comanche Indians from their reservation near Lawton, Okla., plied for two auto loads of peyote, used in religious ceremonies of the Indians, after having been denied permission to import it from Mexico by State and Federal authorities. The weed is under the narcotic ban.

Arriving in San Antonio by auto the Comanches pitched camp on the north skirts of town, and at daylight the following day appealed to a member of the local Indian colony for help.

Having received advance assurances from Deputy Customs Collector Cotulla that importation from Mexico would not be permitted, the local natives delayed only long enough to fill the gas tanks of the cars, and head the band south.

Hall Street, owner of a large ranch near Olton, Tex., and a government supply last year showed the only supply of the weed in the United States. He led the upper fringe of a five-mile ledge that was located in one of his pastures. The only other supply of the weed is in the interior of Mexico in a restricted area.

Street called at the Customs House and, after receiving assurances that the weed would be permitted for the Indians to harvest their crop of peyote, proposed that he be permitted to ship it, or give instructions that they were not to be molested.

The herb is said to be a member of the cactus family, growing a stem about one and a half inches in diameter, inside of which is the pulp that carries the "kick."

The tribal medicine man sets great store to the curative powers of the peyote pulp, using a tea brewed from it to heal. When a wound is to be healed. At a semiannual religious ceremonial tea boiled from peyote pulp is believed to have a special power to appease the wrath of the tribal gods. The squaws drink the tea and the husbands like to have it.

Street said the supply on his land was discovered by an enterprising Osage Indian only since the supply from Mexico was cut off.

VATICAN WANTS FULL FREEDOM

Mussolini Strikes Snag in Church-State Mission

Healing of Long-Standing Breach Less Certain

Fascists Are Unwilling to Concede So Much

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)

ROME, Jan. 12.—Premier Mussolini's careful maneuvering with the object of healing the historic breach between church and State, constituting one of Fascism's most important policies and one of Mussolini's pet ambitions, suddenly has encountered an unexpected and perhaps serious obstacle.

A Vatican official, apparently expressing the Pope's attitude and intimation that the Holy See would not consent to anything which short of absolute freedom of action, has brought forth a storm of controversy, which it is clearly seen that the Fascists will refuse concession of such a magnitude. The government remains silent but the Fascist press "regrets" that the statement has been printed.

The Observatore Romano, the Vatican organ, declares:

"The government must provide for the Holy See that condition of full liberty and independence real and apparent to the whole world, to which it is entitled; it then must proceed to reform all unjust laws by agreement between the two authorities."

With reference to the proposed Ecclesiastical Reform bill, the Observatore Romano says:

"It is not correct to talk of collaboration by the government and the Holy See. The proposed bill is the work of the government alone, the ecclesiastical authorities having no part in it. If it contains improvements on past unjust legislation, it still is far from presenting what is necessary for complete reparation and total religious pacification of the country."

The paper demands the immediate abolition of the law of guarantees, by which the Italian government defined the status of the church, which was recognized and accepted by the Vatican.

The press points out that the Vatican's reputation of the ecclesiastical reform is difficult to understand as the committee which prepared the bill included such church authorities as Canon Talamo of St. Peter's, Canon Cisterna of St. Mary's Maggiore and Canon Capitani of St. John Lateran.

Counties Give Approval for Road Program

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 12.—All but two of the forty-three California counties in which existing county highways on State highways are being taken over for maintenance by the State Highway Commission have approved the commission's route selections. In making this announcement today Secretary Milton of the commission said Nevada and Alameda counties had not yet acted, yet are expected to approve the State program soon and that the conference was now under way on the routing of the Tahoe-Ukiah highway in Nevada county.

To facilitate the additional maintenance work required on the 171 miles of road taken over, the commission recently purchased $120,000 worth of graders, tractors and other equipment.

MEXICO SLICES
POSTAL RATESTwenty Per Cent Reduction
Made in Mailing ScaleSystem Maintains Highest Degree of EfficiencyUnusual Cold Weather Snap
Grips Tamaulipas

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
TAMPICO (Mex.) Jan. 12.—New evidence that the Mexican government is doing pretty well financially is found in the fact that postage rates just have been reduced. Heretofore it has cost 10 centavos, or 5 cents American, to mail an ordinary letter in Mexico, although a letter entering Mexico from the United States needs only the 2-cent stamp it would need within the borders of the northern republic. Now Mexican postage rates have been reduced 20 per cent. A letter originating in the United States still can be sent through Mexico for half as much as one originating in Mexico, the difference being adjusted between the postoffice departments of the two countries.

Considering all the handicaps it has undergone during the last decade, Mexico's postoffice department is and always has been remarkably efficient. Even through such trying and disorganizing experiences as uprisings and railroad strikes it has carried on in a way which has won the admiration of thousands of Americans in this Americanized town, as doubtless it has elsewhere in the republic.

EFFICIENT SYSTEM
In some cases roving Americans have received letters and international money orders which had been pursuing them for as much as two years. And in Mexico one never sees people asking at the general delivery window if there is mail for them. After each mail arrives, a complete alphabetical list—or a dozen of them in large offices—is posted. In a big city, 100 inquiries can scan those lists in five minutes and only those who know mail awaits them ask at the windows. Each letter is numbered on the list, and the inquirer asks both by name and number. It is the work of an instant only for the clerk to find the number.

The letters unclaimed are advertised in the papers. In this city, hundreds of letters are delivered every week to Americans whose addresses were unknown by the writers—to some, indeed, who are working in oil camps 100 miles from Tampico. It is doubtful if any postoffice in the United States goes to half the trouble to deliver mail to unknown aliens, or has such a remarkable record of success in that respect, as has this Tampico postoffice.

The same general plans of delivery are followed in all Mexican postoffices. Tampico is a famous "port of missing men," and every day Americans here receive letters from friends or relatives in the States who are not even sure they are here, and simply address the letters to Tampico. Imagine the same thing happening to unknown Mexicans in any American city of comparative importance. Tampico is the third city in Mexico, and commercially, the most important.

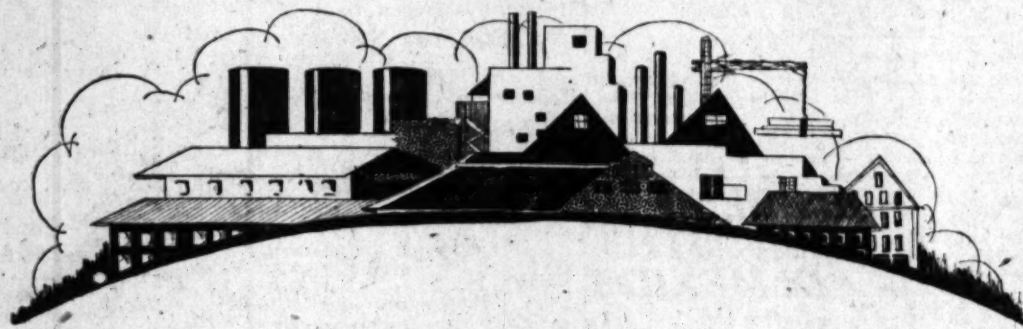

UNUSUAL WEATHER
Eastern Mexico has been experiencing the coldest weather in years. Last week there was snow at Victoria, capital of Tamaulipas, the State of which Tampico is the biggest city. Snow also fell at Monterrey, Saltillo, Chihuahua and most of the territory between. When it is understood that in Tampico a straw hat is a standard and favorite Christmas present, this news can be appreciated. This latest Christmas, as usual, Tampico fairly bloomed with new straw hats—all that part of Tampico, at least, which affects broad native sombreros. But a few days later they barely escaped frostbite.

It is an odd fact that this part of Mexico gets two or three "hurricanes" or cold snaps every winter which Southern California and the West Coast of Mexico entirely escape. Usually, these are the tails of storms which are felt more keenly in Florida and Georgia. Ordinarily these bring only a pleasant swiftness to the air this far south, but this has been an unusual year. In Central Mexico the storms sweep down from the Rockies as they sometimes do across Texas, and snow and ice are common in the Sierra Madre. Western Mexico, like Southern California, has the most equable temperatures of the republic.

Footprints of Earliest Land Animal Found
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
PRINCETON (N. J.) Jan. 12.—Footprints, believed to be those of the earliest land vertebrate, described as a race of animals that evolved directly from the fish, were discovered in the Grand Canyon recently by R. Milton Pulte of Montclair, N. J., member of the senior class at Princeton. Plaster casts of the footprints were made and are being studied at the National Museum of natural History.

Pulte came upon the footprints just off the Taqui trail in the Grand Canyon, where he spent three days with Dr. R. M. Field of the geological department. The footprints are thought to be those of an ancestor of the frog or salamander, and not a distant relative of the "dawn fish," traces of which recently were discovered by Dr. Howell of the Princeton faculty.

RIVAL PLAN FOR JEWS REPORTED

Move for Crimea Homeland Told in Paris Paper

Palestine Leaders Declared to be Much Disturbed

Denial From New York Calls Story Ridiculous

PARIS, Jan. 12.—Le Matin has received from its correspondent in Palestine, who wrote from Jaffa, a dispatch saying that the local Zionist leaders are much disturbed and even disheartened because of a movement to establish a rival Jewish national home in Crimea. The correspondent quotes a leading Jew of Tel Aviv, a new town built by immigrants alongside of Jaffa, as saying that American Jewish organizations are back of the new movement.

After telling of the progress made in Palestine this man said: "Alas, it is to the bosom of our own people that our peril is born. We face the danger of a rival of Palestine. Mr. Marshall has just negotiated with the soviet government for the transformation of Crimea into a national Jewish home. Marshall has promised for development of this plan $20,000,000 yearly."

The Jewish notable explained that Bolshevik historians discovered that the Jews of Russia and Poland did not come from Palestine originally but were descendants of the Khazars, warriors of the Middle Ages who were fighting the first Russian princes and that eventually they were chased out of Crimea by the Tartars.

"I do not believe in this Bolshevik story," said the municipal councillor "and I believe in the Zion of Palestine. Besides, I built 300 houses here and most of them have not been paid for. There are 2,000,000 pounds invested in Palestine enterprises and is this money going to be lost?"

"England will certainly oppose Marshall's plan in every way for England needs us here. Without Jews Palestine will remain like a dried-up fruit. It is only we who can conduct the commerce of Jaffa and Caifa in a way that will occur with neighboring ports, notably Beirut. And what guarantee is Mr. Marshall going to give these unfortunate Jews who are going to found the new Palestine? The soviet guarantee? That will be nice, but some fine morning they will all be massacred. But it is true, that Crimea is a magnificent country and offers great commercial possibilities."

TALE CALLED LIE FOR ULTERIOR PURPOSE

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—"It is a stupid lie manufactured for some ulterior purpose," declared Louis Marshall when the foregoing dispatch was read to him over the telephone. "Whoever did it is a candidate for the lunatic asylum. He is a man who believes his own fantastic dreams. The entire conception is ridiculous."

The facts are these: The joint distribution committee, realizing the great majority of the people of Eastern Europe decided, after long and serious consideration, to help those who wish to go back to the land and to save the livelihood which might save them from starvation and annihilation.

"Out of a total amount of $15,000,000, the committee set aside $1,500,000 a year for three years, $4,500,000 in all to assist the people of Poland, Rumania, Russia and other countries of eastern Europe to go back to the soil."

"This project has received columns of publicity in the newspapers of this country for months and everyone who is at all interested in it knows the facts."

MARFA (Tex.) Jan. 12.—Charles Mulhern, who died at Fort Davis, Tex., at 93 years of age, was born in Ireland in 1832. He came to New York in 1852. After remaining there a short time he went to Atlanta, Ga., where he later joined the United States Army, remaining with it until 1883. After the Civil War Mulhern came to Texas with the Fourth Cavalry. In the latter part of 1886 he moved from San Antonio to Fort Davis, where that post was established. Here he was quartermaster-adjutant of Company C, Fourth Cavalry. He went to Fort Davis in 1873. Several years after, when he was a retired ordnance sergeant, he bought the old Mulquiney Canyon ranch from Capt. Maxon, a former army officer, discoverer of Maxon Springs.

WARM IN ALASKA

Mercury Above Freezing Point And Summer Suits Popular

ANCHORAGE (Alaska) Jan. 12. Alaskans of Anchorage, along the railroad belt, as well as in other sections of the territory, are still wearing their summer clothing, for the temperature remains most of the time above freezing. Ordinarily at this time of the year it is many degrees below zero.

While admitting that the present winter is the mildest ever experienced in Alaska, old timers recall that almost similar conditions within the last twenty years have risen to the belief that the Japanese current had changed its course.

At least another winter of high temperatures must come before all residents will believe that a permanent change occurred last year.

REDLANDS PAST, FUTURE SHOWN

Chamber of Commerce There in Annual Banquet

Growth and Prospects of City Emphasized

Nearly Two Hundred Business Men Attend

BY BURTON L. SMITH
"Times" Staff Correspondent

REDLANDS, Jan. 12.—Redlands' past growth, her future prospects and the general atmosphere of good will and co-operation upon the part of her citizens were more forcibly brought to the fore than tonight when approximately 200 leading business and professional men gathered at the annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce.

As has been the rule in the past the annual gathering was used as an occasion to introduce to the officers of the municipal government and to review the work of the year just closed. Aside from these important features a musical and entertainment program was presented that was much more elaborate than anything attempted in the past and was said to have been among the best entertainments offered local citizens for many years.

With Phillip Harris, past president, in the chair, the many members of the program were presented as scheduled, and, because of his happy faculty as a presiding officer, dull moments were not part of the evening's pleasure.

An innovation for gatherings of this character was a well-presented farce as the opening number of entertainment and followed the service of a most elaborate 8 o'clock dinner.

The dining-room of the famous Casa Loma Hotel provided a fine setting for the whole affair and was particularly well adapted to the presentation of the comedy. Characters of the farce, which was a satire on Chambers of Commerce, were given by a cast composed of the Y. S. Men's Club with John Carroll in the leading role. Musical numbers including quartets from the University of Redlands and city high schools and solos by Mrs. H. E. Cronan.

Short addresses were made by the past president, H. H. Hoffman, President-elect and Mayor A. E. Isham, following which Colvin B. Brown of the United States Chamber of Commerce spoke on the community's relation to the nation's business. His talk was not only inspirational and full of splendid advice for the business interests of all municipalities but was highly interesting and was most favorably received by the well-pleased audience.

The secretary's annual report brought forward a long list of achievements during the past year and outlined a program for a continued forward movement during 1926. The keynote of the meeting was well expressed by a quotation from President Coolidge, printed on the menu: "Doubters do not achieve—skeptics do not contribute—critics do not build."

Two opposing forces are at work in every community, said Mr. Brown. "One makes for conservation and growth, the other, for deterioration and decay. The Chamber of Commerce must be on the side of the first. There are certain essential elements in the building and conduct of a successful Chamber of Commerce. They are four in number. The first is an understanding of the situation it occupies in a community life; the second is a program of practically any kind, the third is a selection of committees to carry out the program; the fourth is a budget based on the work to be done."

A feature of the occasion was a one-act play "President by Proxy," presented by members of the M. C. A. Y. S. Men's club, in which Warren Tinkham, Paul Jones, Verne McKinnon, L. D. Crinklaw, Francis Hurff, Earl Nicka, Stewart Yost, George Williams, Richard Sering, Harold McBridge, Orland Fowler and Emmett Osburn took part.

Victim of Back Slap by Excited Rooter Better

ALHAMBRA, Jan. 12.—Confined to his bed since New Year's Day by the enthusiastic wallop of a touchdown-celebrating collegian at the Alabama-Washington football game, Dr. A. J. Quennell, local dentist, was declared today out of danger and on the road to recovery.

The wallop was purely a friendly one and administered when the collegian was somewhat excited, but it drove a splinter from one of Dr. Quennell's ribs and his right lung and very nearly proved fatal.

Dr. Quennell was rooting for Alabama and the collegian beside him was yelling for the football team of George Wilson's university, and the mighty smack the dentist received came when the first Husky touchdown was scored.

THREATS ON FRATS SUBSIDE

Promise of Penal Action Falls as Orders Promise Not to Operate in San Diego High Schools

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 12.—The grand jury investigation into male secret societies at the San Diego High School appeared to have reached a point where threats of Penal Code prosecution were dissipated shortly after noon today, when representatives of four of five known fraternities went into conference with Dist. Atty. Kempster under admitted plans to agree that the "frats" will not operate in the high school nor take members who are students.

It was not indicated, however, that the organizations would completely disband. The fifth fraternity was not represented at the conference, but was said to be the fraternity doubtless would follow the action of the others.

Commenting on the five known fraternities, Kempster said that two of the four represented at the conference, after the final hearing, had lived up to their promise in previous years not to operate in the high school. The entire school board, which is to meet late today to decide what action to take on the six boys suspended from the school for fraternity affiliations, was before him today this morning for more than an hour.

Riverside Man Rejects Offer as Fair Chief

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

RIVERSIDE, Jan. 12.—After considering the matter for two weeks S. C. Evans today notified the directors of the Southern California Fair that he will be unable to accept the offer of presidency of the organization. Evans, who is now president of the organization, was notified by the resignation of J. E. Wherry, the position was offered to him at a meeting held recently at Mission Inn.

In his letter, read at the regular board meeting, Mr. Evans stated that an investigation of the directors of the fair had convinced him that it is a job he cannot undertake. With four years of public service as Mayor of Riverside just completed, Mr. Evans said, he feels that his private life is too full to accept the presidency.

Burglars Raid Postoffice at Beach in Vain

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

LONG BEACH, Jan. 12.—Although burglars forced entrance into the postoffice at Seal Beach, near here, some time last night, nothing of value was obtained, according to a postmaster's announcement today.

Discovery of the burglary was made by the postmistress this morning and postal inspectors were immediately dispatched from Los Angeles to make a careful check of mail matter and government property.

Failure of the burglars to secure anything of value was due to the fact, Mr. Collier said, that all stamps, money and valuable packages are placed in the vault of a nearby bank every night. No attempt was made by the burglars to blow open the postoffice safe.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
REDLANDS, Jan. 12.—The trial of Mrs. Beale Barnett, the woman who in Yuma won a $100,000 judgment against Rev. R. G. Edwards, the storm center of the civil war in the Christian Church here, paled into insignificance today in comparison with a trial that developed in this hall of justice.

It is said, Rev. C. J. Upton, leader of the "Ins," attacked Mrs. Barnett, who defended herself by slapping him. She then grabbed hold of his hair with both hands and shook his glasses off and scratched his face, they say. Upton is one of the "Ins" and a strong supporter of Dr. Edwards.

George Knox, one of the leaders in the "Outs," stepped between Mrs. Barnett and Dr. Upton just in time to receive a blow from the minister, those who were present at the trial.

305 The "Tariff of Abominations." by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

IN 1827 A BILL PROPOSING A HIGHER TARIFF WAS BROUGHT BEFORE CONGRESS. IT WAS ADVOCATED BY PRESIDENT ADAMS AND FANDED BY THE NORTH AND WEST. THE SOUTH WAS BITTERLY OPPOSED TO IT.

THE NORTH WANTED A HIGH TARIFF TO PROTECT ITS WOOLEN MANUFACTURES. THE SOUTH WANTED A LOW ONE SO THAT IT COULD BUY GOODS WHERE THEY WERE CHEAPEST.

THE SOUTH WAS INDIGNANT AT THIS TURN OF AFFAIRS. THE LEGISLATURES OF THE SOUTHERN STATES PROTESTED AGAINST THE ACT AND MANY SOUTHERNERS THREATENED TO BOYCOTT NORTHERN CLOTH.

IN THIS DOCUMENT IT WAS SUGGESTED THAT SOUTH CAROLINA SHOULD DECLARE THE TARIFF ACT NULL AND VOID WITHIN THE STATE. BUT THE TARIFF WAS TAKEN AT THE TIME.

These daily history strips make a unique pictorial history of America. Hundreds are clipping them daily and pasting them in scrapbooks.

Determined to Teach Stern Lesson

LOS ANGELES AND ASSOCIATED PRESS. LOS ANGELES, Jan. 12.—Federal troops today continued a ruthless campaign of extermination against the bandits who held up a train Saturday night and killed an estimated total of 50 persons, including passengers, train guards and conductors. Death was dealt without mercy to the bandits and their accomplices.

The War Department issued a communique today saying that a number of the bandits have been killed in a battle fought at Quitupan, a small town in the state of Jalisco. The bandits were surrounded by federal troops and most of them died. The survivors were taken prisoner and are being held in a military camp. The communique said that the government is determined to give such a stern lesson to the bandits that they will fear to repeat the outrages.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—A wave-

25,000 persons in this country, 10-600 more than last year, will be successful in picking up European stations during the international radio broadcasting tests the 24th

day by the International Radio
Week committee.
All but Davenport, Eng., which will use a 1600-meter wave length,
will broadcast on short wave
lengths, in order to reach the greatest number of listeners with the least amount of interference, according to L. A. Nixon, executive secretary of the committee.
The schedule of wave lengths in meters follows:
Munich, 485; Vienna, 481; Stuttgart, 446; Toulouse, 443; Munster,
416; Hamburg, 392.5; Madrid, 373;
Prague, 364; and Brussels, 263.
Improvements in receiving sets
since the last international tests will enable a larger number of persons to hear the European stations. Mr. Nixon said. Virtually any good five-tube receiving set outside of the big cities should pick up the foreign broadcasters.

OAKLAND, Jan. 12.—The bronze statue of Joan d'Arc which was presented to the Oakland Technical High School by the French government, and stolen from its pedestal there on December 4, has been recovered. It was found by two boys, sticking from the mud of a Lake Merritt shoal in the heart of the city and was taken away from the finders by W. D. Barker, who took it from them after they refused to sell it to him. The police took it from Barker.
The mysterious thief had replaced the statue with that of a nun, which he had purchased from a nearby religious store. The statue had been given to the school
to commemorate the lives of the school students who fell in the World War.

Federal grand jury investigating the murder of wealthy Osage Indians in Oklahoma, recessed today
until February 11.
Although it brought indictments
in only one case, Edwin K. Brown, special assistant attorney-general,
declared the jury's progress was satisfactory. It was announced that W. K. Hale and John Ramsay, indicted for the murder of Henry Roan, an Osage, will be arraigned in Federal court here Saturday.
U. S. Dist. Atty. Roy Lewis, announced he will file perjury charges against several of the witnesses
who appeared before the grand jury, but he declined to make public the names of the persons to be charged.

OSAGE MURDER SERIES UNPARALLELED

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
PAULS VALLEY (Okla.) Jan. 12.—
Charges filed by the grand jury
of Oklahoma in the Osage Indian case are regarded by State authorities as the most serious
yet that will unlock doors to a related series of crimes believed unparalleled in modern history. No less than fifteen crimes, nearly all of them murders are believed to be in the list.

Evidence gathered by Federal and State officials during the last five years relates in particular to a series of crimes that began in 1922 with the murder of Anna
Brown, an Osage woman of Gray-
horse, whose body was found in a creek near Fairfax, a bullet hole
in the top of the head.

Henry Roan, owner of Anna
Brown, six weeks later was killed on a pasture belonging to Roan.
His body was found three days after his disappearance.
Frozen in a snow storm and with a bullet hole in the head, Roan
and Anna Brown were the first of a series of murders. The next victim was Lizzie Q. Brown, an Osage woman, who a few months previously had been suddenly in her old age but whose death at the time caused little suspicion. Developments have lent color to a theory that she was murdered,
probably with poison.

OTHER DEATHS

Within a few days after the slaying of Roan, William Stepon,
an Osage and a close friend of Roan, died after a brief illness at the home of a wealthy ranchman.
Luzette, the same year, "Big Anna" Sanford became suddenly ill and died and her death was followed shortly by that of Mrs. W. E. Smith which was as sudden and as terrible as that of the Sanford woman. Whitehorn, a relative of Anna Brown, in the latter part of 1922, was found dead in a pool of blood near Pawhuska. Two months later George Bighorn, a son of the last hereditary chief of the Osage,
became mysteriously ill and was hunted to a hospital in Oklahoma City, accompanied by W. K. Hale,
a wealthy ranchman of Osage county, and Ernest Burkhardt, a nephew, who married a sister of Anna Brown.

Bighorn died in the hospital,
but not until Charles Vaughn, his attorney, had conferred with him privately. Vaughn took a train for Pawhuska that night. The next morning his body was found in night clothes on the railroad right of way in the vicinity of Pershing.
A coroner's jury said he had either fallen from the train or had been thrown off.

Then followed, on March 10, 1923, the dynamiting of the home of W. E. Smith at Fairfax, which caused the death of Smith, his wife and a servant. The Attorney-General filed charges against W. K.
Hale, Ernest Burkhardt, A. A.
Bloyd, Osage County Deputy Sheriff, and Bert Lawson in the death of the Smiths and the girl,
Lawson is serving a term in the Federal prison at Leavenworth.

This in brief is the story of the reign of terror in Osage county,
but the several items are little more than chapter titles, for the real story lies in the motives, inspired by the money value of the headrights of these Osages. So many millions have been poured into the coffers of these people
derived from royalties on oil production that the investment of the money in low-interest bonds
last year gave each of the 2300
of them an income of $13,500.
Since oil production continues and investments continue to draw interest, this amount may be a minimum that every possessor of a headright will draw in the longest of a single life time.

But all that isn't half the story.
There were intrigue, conspiracy and plot, threat against Federal and State secret service agents,
and the fear of representative
men and women of Osage county
to talk aloud.

There was the case of Herman Fitz Davis, a friend of former
Gov. Jack Walton, when residents of Osage county appealed to Walton to end the reign of terror.
Walton sent Davis to investigate.
Presently Davis was accused of accepting bribes from conspirators.
He was found guilty and sentenced to twenty-five years in the State penitentiary. Walton pardoned him but he was sent back to prison after being convicted of killing Paul Mc-Carthy, an Oklahoma City lawyer.
More than one secret service
man withdrew from Osage county.
The man who made the original investigation for the Department of Justice turned in his report and retired from the service.

MANY LEAKS

So many leaks have developed in the Osage country that both the Federal and State governments have found it difficult to correlate ends of information obtained.
Every once in a while during the last three years rumors have been published of intentions of one or the other of the governments to conduct an investigation of the Federal grand jury convened in the Western Oklahoma district in which had been expected to inquire into the Osage situation. It is regarded as not improbable that more than one "leak" has led to the present investigation. One rumor had added to the Osage terror and rendered more difficult the process of investigation. One it appeared that the State was about to make something out of the

A Great New Horticultural Empire Is Now Open!

Typically Californian, this tremendous area of 17,500 acres, lies between the Mountains and the Sea, offering the ideal place for an all-year Southern California Country Home, and is the last important body of horticultural land with a fully developed and adequate water supply left in Southern California.

The region has a remarkable climate, noted for its uniform temperature. The proximity of the ocean reduces extremes of heat and cold, yet it lies far enough inland (8 miles) to get away from the winds and fogs found along the coast. In short—this wonderful district has every known factor to make possible profitable and intensive cultivation.

INTENSIVE CULTIVATION

Due to the rich soil, climate and splendid water supply, probably no other section in Southern California is so well fitted for intensive, and very highly specialized horticultural and agricultural pursuits.
Here the opportunity for the small acreage man is very exceptional. Undeveloped acreage, with full water supply, can now be obtained at prices far below similar lands elsewhere in Southern California.

INCREASING LAND VALUES

With the intensive development now taking place in this district land values should rapidly approach those of the older avocado and citrus growing sections, where values ranging from $2500 to $5000 per acre now prevail for planted land.
Today land may be secured here for from $350 to $550 per acre ready and suitable for the cultivation of avocado and citrus groves. Today this is one of the greatest values offered in the history of California's development.

SAFETY TWO WAYS

The purchaser in this region has two great factors of safety on his side. First the natural increase of land value, bound to come with the development of water and second the revenue to be derived from cultivation of profitable products under the most ideal conditions.

WHITE GOLD OF THE WEST

The great factor that assures the success of this new Empire is the white gold of the west—WATER. These fertile acres have an abundant supply coming from Southern California's largest impounding reservoir, with capacity of 164,000 acre feet. This source of water plus the good average rainfall of from 14 to 15 inches, does away with the possibility of dry years.

EVERYTHING GROWS

A most astonishing variety of products grow in this remarkable section such as, avocados, lemons, oranges, figs, English walnuts, grapes, all kinds of delicious fruits, while

The Big Opportunity of 1926

Transportation facilities are of the best, the Santa Fe System serves the property directly, a great paved motor highway runs through the very heart of the district. Out of season products can be delivered to San Francisco within 24 hours.

The District is but 45 miles north of San Diego and 95 miles south of Los Angeles. One of the South's finest beaches is only 20 to 25 minutes distant by motor, while it is possible to be in the mile high mountains after 2 hours' auto ride.

A thriving city is growing rapidly in the district, offering fine opportunities for business and investment. Splendid schools from kindergarten to high schools are now available.

The water system is a community owned project and is declared by eminent engineers of the west to be the most modern and efficient construction of its kind in the world.

A special one or two-day motor trip to this project may be arranged for those interested. This trip not only shows a great horticultural empire in the making, but many points of historic interest such as old missions and Spanish ranchos.

To the Citizens of Los Angeles

THE recent action of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce on the Plaza Union Station plan was, in our opinion, wise and sound.

The rapid and changing development of our city during the years since the Plaza Union Station was first suggested has so changed the situation that it is not now, as it ever was, a paramount issue. A much more vital need is the permanent relief of traffic congestion, which in our judgement and that of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce would be seriously aggravated by the Plaza plan.

Moreover, the basic reason for a Union Station in any city is to serve passengers transferring from one station to another when passing through. But Los Angeles is a terminal, not a transfer point.

The resolution of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce did not advocate any other plan, but merely expressed the conviction that a continuance of the already too long fight for a Plaza Union Station was a misfortune to the community and was obscuring an issue of much greater importance.

In this action of the Chamber of Commerce we heartily concur and we recommend to our fellow citizens that they make a careful study of the whole question from the standpoint of the city's real interests.

Doctors Scout Cave-Man Diet as Health Aid

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
LONDON, Jan. 12.—The suggestion of Sir W. Arbuthnot Lane, noted surgeon, that the diet of today would be better off if he confined himself to the diet of the cave man, has stirred British physicians to action to defend habits of modern civilization. Sir Arbuthnot, who contends that the present generation is eating three or four times more food than is good for it, is all wrong, say the physicians here.
To set the civilized peoples back to masticating acorns, feasting upon crabsapples and fighting over the carcass of a slaughtered bear would be as subversive to health as it would be destructive of morality, to replace the courts of law with the arbitrament of club or the knoutstick," says Dr. Josiah Oldfield, Dr. Oldfield's observation, however, that by the elimination of overeating a "new and happier golden age" would be inaugurated.

Industrial CongressNeed for State Settlers
Recited at Session

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
PHOENIX, Jan. 12.—Need for alliance with Los Angeles as the manufacturing and commercial center of the Southwest was stressed today by President P. G. Spillbury, at the annual meeting of the Arizona Industrial Congress. "There is no use fooling ourselves," he declared, "over the possibility that Arizona can become a manufacturing State for many years to come. Such a result may be accomplished only after the power of the Colorado River has been harnessed and that will be at least fifteen years in the future. What we now need is settlement of the arable areas and a market for their agricultural products. We need 25,000 settlers for the projects now existing or soon to be completed."

Mr. Spillbury spoke in warm praise of the assistance toward this end already given by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. "In return," he said, "we can do no less than acknowledge the supremacy of California in manufacturing within a market area that holds millions of people."

The speaker added that still more substantial acknowledgment lay in the throwing of $3,000,000 of Arizona business to Los Angeles in the past two months. "We are trading business for publicity," was declared, "and both communities thereby will profit."

C. L. Seagraves, Santa Fe colonization agent, stated that 75 per cent of prospective settlers, have less than $2500 in cash, an amount insufficient to buy much of a farm in these days or to develop one.

Ordered to Get Sense of Humor

BERLIN, Jan. 12.—Herr Severing, the Prussian Minister of the Interior, has ordered State employees to get a sense of humor. They are requested to report humorous incidents, jokes and funny pictures, especially those dealing with the police.

The authorities expect this collection will give a picture of the general feeling of officials and the public while at the same time it is hoped a deliberate effort to see the other's funny point of view will help to lessen the stiffness of the old time officials avoiding the entanglements.

He suggested that a tourist drawn by scenery and climate is to be considered as a prospective settler. At least three years is needed for any advertising plan. R. E. Kelly of the Southern Pacific, J. J. Duell of the Arizona Farm Bureau Federation and Fred J. Elliott of Phoenix spoke along the same lines.

PIONEERS AS 'TRUST BUSTER'

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Reversing the slogan which bade her father and mother "go West and become pioneers," Miss Crenna Sellers has come East from Oklahoma to do some pioneering as the youngest woman "trust buster" in the country.

She is the second woman, and the youngest, to join the antitrust division of U. S. Atty. Buckner's staff. She has found, she said today, that the pioneer's craving for new fields can be satisfied by exploring a sphere hitherto almost devoid of women, as her parents satisfied it by going to Oklahoma when that country was still Indian territory.

Though convinced a woman can carve a career out of even so complex a branch of the legal profession as the antitrust division, Miss Sellers is not the "modern woman" in so many other ways. She does not have bobbed hair and does not intend to. She doesn't smoke. She does not like saxophones, jazz or subways. Her preference is cooking, Shakespearean drama and literature.

"But," she said, "if other girls want to wear their hair short and smoke cigarettes I think they should be allowed to. Morality has nothing to do with bobbed hair or women's smoking, you know."

She was graduated from the Yale law school last September, a year ahead of schedule, was the only girl elected to the order of Coif in the school, and was one of the editors of the Yale Law Journal.

Blind Angeleno

Long Captivity

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

WORCESTER (Mass.) Jan. 12.—Arrested here today on a technical charge of vagrancy, James Tyler, 38 years of age and blind, told police he was brought from Los Angeles ten years ago and had been kept prisoner since in a room by a Hungarian whom he knew only as James Bell.

Bell, Tyler said, took a $5000 legacy left to Tyler in 1916 in Los Angeles and cared for him until last Friday, when he abandoned him in a house which he could not designate. Tyler said he had been wandering without food more than twenty-four hours. Police are trying to check up on his story.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—The Industrial Accident Commission announced today that the investigating shaft between the Kennedy mine, both in Amador county, has been located, providing a way of escape from one mine into the other in event of a threatened disaster.

The commission says that the mines, which are gold-ore mines, are the deepest in the States and are the only ones jointly owned that have communicating facilities, which involved the driving of a shaft opening 600 feet long through solid granite.

TAKE SALTS IF STOMACH IS NOT ACTING NORMALLY

Says Indigestion Result from an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid

Undigested food delayed in the stomach as food left in the system, a noted authority, has shown that indigestion is caused by an excess of hydrochloric acid which prevents complete digestion of the food. This acid is secreted by the stomach glands and is necessary for the proper digestion of food. When the stomach is overloaded with food, the glands secrete an excess of this acid, which causes indigestion. The result is a feeling of fullness, bloating, and discomfort. The remedy is to take salts which neutralize the excess acid and allow the stomach to function properly.

SAFETY PLAN FOR DEATH

Institution Will be Maintained

Corp Serves to Honor Deceased Ones

Families Impoverished by Old Custom

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

PAID (San Francisco) Jan. 12.—A plan to maintain an institution for the care of the dead, which would serve to honor deceased ones and relieve families impoverished by old customs, was announced today by the board of directors of the National Association of Undertakers.

The plan, which is being considered by the board, is to establish a national institution where the dead could be kept for a period of time, during which the families could arrange for their burial. This would allow families to honor their deceased loved ones without the expense of a funeral home. The institution would also serve as a place where the dead could be kept until they could be buried in a more permanent location.

KILL DOUBLE-HEADED RATTLER

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE)

FRESNO, Jan. 12.—A rattlesnake with two perfect heads, killed by C. M. Bridges of Auberry, Cal., was brought to Dr. T. T. Waterman, who has charge of the Fresno State College, yesterday. Bridges declared that both heads were awake, that two tongues flicked out at him and that four beady eyes glared at him. The question, according to Dr. Waterman, is "which head was the boss?" Both seem complete, yet the cerebrum of one may be rudimentary, leaving the other head to do what thinking this snake found necessary. The snake, about ten inches long, is being preserved in alcohol at the college.

Butter by Chemical Process Predicted

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

IOWA CITY (Iowa) Jan. 12.—Farmers' wives may not always have to juggle cream about in a barrel of soap by the hour with a dasher in order to make butter of it, according to Prof. Gilbert N. Houser of the University of Iowa, who points out that the turning of cream into butter and buttermilk by chemical means would seem to be possible. The Iowa expert explains that the butter fat in milk and cream is held captive by the protein, or whey part of the mixture. He believes that means will be found to force this protein to give up its butter fat without subjecting it to the beating that farmers' wives call "doing the churning."

BANKS MAKE FEW CHANGES

Stockholders' Meetings Are Quiet Affairs

Additional Members Are Added to Several Boards

Directors to Organize and Plan for 1928

No major changes were made in the directorates of the nine State and national banks of Los Angeles which held their annual stockholders' meetings yesterday. Several of the banks added new directors and a few vacancies were filled. The various new boards of directors will meet this week to organize and make plans for the ensuing year.

The stockholders of the Bank of America re-elected the forty-eight old directors and immediately following the stockholders' meeting the directors organized by re-electing the old officers with the exception of the following, who were promoted to the position of assistant cashier.

D. E. MacVicar was advanced from the office of assistant cashier to that of assistant vice-president, and will continue as manager of the Wilshire-Western office of the Bank of America. E. M. Marston, assistant secretary of the bank, was promoted to the position of assistant cashier. L. J. Paul, manager of the note department, was promoted to the position of assistant cashier.

DIRECTORS RE-ELECTED

At the stockholders' meeting of the Commercial National Trust and Savings Bank all of the members of the board of directors were re-elected and no additions were made. The board of directors met and organized for the ensuing year by re-electing the present officers of the bank.

Stockholders of the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank elected Burkett D. Newton and Frank H. Powell to the board of directors. Mr. Newton, son of I. B. Newton and president of the Macnetic Signal Company, was elected to succeed his father, who resigned to become chairman of the board of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco and Federal reserve agent. Mr. Powell is with the Southwestern Portland Cement Company and the Carl Leonard Improvement Company.

Benjamin E. Pease and J. A. Talbot were elected to the board of directors of the Merchants' National Bank at the meeting of the stockholders, bringing the total number of directors to twenty-four. The directors will meet on the 15th inst. to elect officers for the ensuing year.

All directors of the Citizens' National Bank were re-elected and no new ones were added. During the past year total resources of the Citizens' National Bank and the Citizens' Trust and Savings Bank exceeded for the first time the $10,000,000 mark amounting to $11,000,000 on December 31, last, according to a report submitted at the meeting. Deposits increased approximately 17 per cent in the twelve months.

LANDIS CHOSEN

H. B. Landis, vice-president of the National City Bank of Los Angeles, was elected to the board of directors of that institution to succeed F. R. Bain, who recently resigned.

Stockholders of the United States National Bank elected the following to the board of directors: Earl S. Patterson, attorney; Eric Lange, president of Lank & Hesterton, builders; and H. J. Jeffries, president of Newman & Co. The bank now has a directorate composed of twenty-one members. Emmanuel Cohen, vice-president and director of the bank, becomes an active vice-president. Three directors of the Pacific National Bank resigned at the stockholders' meeting yesterday, namely: C. A. Hester, Leo M. Hester and C. H. King, and the following were elected to succeed them: Emerson Speer, vice-president; Wilson-Steele Company; W. W. Harris, attorney; and A. M. Delong, trust officer, Pacific National Bank. There are twenty-eight directors on the board.

The Seaboard National Bank stockholders elected H. M. Evans, retired capitalist of Pasadena, to the board of directors.

ST. PAUL COLLAPSE LAID TO LOW RATES

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Unduly low freight rates, in the opinion of T. A. Hamilton, a rate expert, caused the bankruptcy of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad. He ascribed that reason in reply to a question at the hearing today before the Interstate Commerce Commission, which is investigating the road's condition. The witness supplemented his answer by saying that in the western trunk line district, in which 70 per cent of the St. Paul freight traffic exists, there is a 14 per cent depression in rates.

PETTINGELL TRACES GAIN

Stock Exchange Head States Seats Now Fourth in Value in Nation; Offers Recommendations

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Several notable records were hung up by the Los Angeles Stock Exchange in 1927. As Frank H. Pettingell, president of the exchange, told the members yesterday in his annual report, the achievements of the last year stand out in such bold relief against the records of the past that it is extremely difficult to forecast the trend of the next twelve months. Nevertheless, the records established in 1927 afford a fairly accurate basis for the anticipation of further progress of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange as one of the most important organized markets in the country, outside of New York.

Of particular interest as an index of the place the local market occupies, Mr. Pettingell, for the first time in his reports to the members, touched on the question of the market price of membership. Seats on the exchange, he said, are now in demand at $8000, exclusive of the 5 per cent transfer fee, which compares with $4000 in 1913. At this figure, memberships on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange rank as the fourth highest of all organized markets in the United States.

BOND SALES GROW

Besides the feat of handling an increase of 10 per cent in the volume of business over the previous high record made in 1924, the exchange established itself in 1927 as the largest bond market in the West. Transactions in bonds increased more than $6,000,000 over 1924, or a gain of 23 per cent. This performance alone testifies to the fundamental strength of the local market as a forum for investment issues.

The largest gain, however, was recorded in bank stocks. Public utility transactions increased 323 per cent and the activity in oil shares showed a sizable gain of more than $19,000,000, or 80 per cent. In these records is ample evidence of the prosperity in the business of banking, public utility and oil companies in 1927, and the availability of money to invest in the shares of these companies.

All of this activity naturally brought problems for the exchange to solve. In leading up to the discussion of these questions, Mr. Pettingell prefaced his treatment with a concise statement of the part exchanges play in business, and the imperative need for the efficient administration of a central security market.

FUNCTIONS EXPLAINED

"A stock exchange," he said, "is one of the most essential units in the financial structure of civilized nations, and a peculiarly intricate and sensitive piece of mechanism indispensable for the convenient buying and selling of securities in an orderly manner impossible to be done efficiently or economically in any other way. And it is imperative that those directing the destiny of a stock exchange should be of the highest type of men endowed with rare executive ability, new, imperious to its change what the Supreme Court of the United States is to our judiciary. Further, the exchange body should be ever on the alert to protect itself from being taken unawares by ill-considered measures."

Because of the growth of business, one of the important questions confronting the exchange is the advisability of revising the methods of trading. For more than a quarter of a century, the Los Angeles Stock Exchange has used the call method. There is some agitation to replace this system with the post method of trading, but Mr. Pettingell is inclined to think that the small membership of sixty-seven on the exchange would work better by the use of the post method. Although he concedes that the present system is inadequate to handle the business in heavy days, he believes that it affords the maximum of competitive bidding, contrasted with the post method.

REVIEW SUGGESTED

Another important problem mentioned by Mr. Pettingell is the need of a thorough revision of the commission schedule. He advocates the simplification of the schedule and adjustments to conform to the volume of business done on the Los Angeles exchange. Although seventeen new issues were admitted to trading in 1927, he stated that without the unexpected increase in public utility and bank trading, the new listings would have been unable to supply enough new business.

To further the work of obtaining new listings, Mr. Pettingell suggested to the members that a statistical department be established to check every Southern California security of any importance that might qualify for listing, and to cover the securities already listed.

London Daily Radio

BY ARTHUR W. KIDNEY

(Copyright, 1928, New York Evening Post, Inc.)

LONDON, Jan. 12.—Markets today remained quiet. There was cheerfulness in the undertone owing chiefly to the improvement in Dutch and American exchanges. The money market was stringent because of the ingathering of taxes. The strength of sterling was attributed in some quarters to large quantities of bills drawn by the United States some time back in order to finance purchases of rubber.

Markets are not expecting any immediate rise in the British bank rate.

Trade figures for December were unfavorable, but consistent with results throughout the year. The value of imports during the month was $2,750,000 to $134,260,000, while exports declined $1,000,000 to $80,400,000 compared with December, 1927, leaving an adverse trade balance of $44,000,000.

OIL COMPANIES EFFECT MERGER

Barnsdall Corporation Buys Waite Phillips

New Financing Offered Today by Blair & Co.

Purchasing Firm Operates in Thirteen States

Official announcement of the merger of the Waite Phillips Company with the Barnsdall Corporation, two midcontinent oil properties, was made yesterday by Blair & Co., Inc., bankers, who negotiated the consolidation, and offering will be made today of an issue of $25,000,000. Barnsdall Corporation is now paying dividends at the rate of 127 and 128 a share. It has sold as high as $43.50 a share, and the class "A" as high as $56.25 a share. The company is now paying dividends on both classes of stock at the rate of $2 a share per annum.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE

The issue of debentures, together with a proposed increase in the capital stock of the company, is being offered in connection with the acquisition by the corporation of the properties of the Waite Phillips Company, including oil-producing, refining and marketing facilities in the Mid-Continent territory, appraised at upward of $31,000,000, and to provide for the further development of the corporation.

The combined earnings of the Barnsdall Corporation and subsidiaries and the Waite Phillips Company, available for interest, taxes, reserves for depletion and depreciation, for the years 1922, 1923 and 1924, were more than $5,000,000, with earnings for 1925 as estimated in December of more than $11,000,000. This is an annual average of more than $7,000,000, or about four times the annual interest requirements on the funded debentures, with earnings for 1925 equal to more than six times annual interest requirements.

OPERATIONS WIDE

Barnsdall Corporation was incorporated under the laws of Delaware in 1916 and is principally engaged in the production, refining and sale of petroleum and its by-products. The operations are carried on in thirteen oil-producing States, including the California midcontinent and eastern fields, and also in the refining and marketing of petroleum products. The Barnsdall and Waite Phillips companies have a combined production of more than 100,000 barrels of oil daily, and a combined refining capacity of more than 1,000,000 barrels monthly.

The Waite Phillips Company has been notably successful in its policy of acquiring desirable undeveloped leases in prospective oil territory. Its acquisition brings to the combined unit not only developed properties of known value, but also undeveloped leases of large potential value so that the officials feel that with its record of long settled production in the midcontinent field, Barnsdall Corporation becomes a better balanced enterprise than before.

Stock Exchange Members Elect New Governors

Two new members were elected yesterday to the board of governors of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange for a term of three years and James R. Martin was re-elected to serve another term. The new governors are A. W. Morris of A. W. Morris & Co., and Frank L. Gardner of Banks, Huntley & Co. Governors whose terms expired are R. E. Hunter of Hunter, Dulin & Co.; Eard Graves of Eard Graves & Co.; and James R. Martin. The governors will meet today to elect officers for the ensuing year.

California Street Improvement Bonds are an absolute lien on specific property, ranking ahead of all mortgages, present or future. Issued for the installation of paving, ornamental lighting and other improvements, they represent but a small percentage of the value of the property, which in many instances is over 100 times the amount of the bonds.

Street Bonds are one of the simplest and easiest forms of investment to handle. Through QUIRK BROTHERS service, any amount from $25 up may be kept invested in choice street bonds for an unlimited period at 6% to 7%, exempt from all Federal Income Tax and California Personal Property Taxes.

We purchase and offer to our clients only those street bonds which are secured by property in established and well-developed sections of Los Angeles and neighboring cities. Recent offerings include the following important Los Angeles Streets:

Wheat Futures in Brisk Rally After Downturn

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Wheat was weak early, with a decline to 1.15, a new low on the present downturn and 13 1/2¢ under the recent high point, but around that figure there was buying by commission houses on rising orders, and to holders of wheat which absorbed the selling to the pit, and a rally of 5/8¢ from the inside figure followed. There was little in the news to cause any enthusiasm on the buying side, and in the main the rally was due to short covering, with the bulk of the lower on May and July contracts. The market was higher on May and July contracts, with May at 1.17 1/2¢ and July at 1.19 1/2¢.

Political propaganda seems to be running its course, as a bullish factor in the corn market, and there was local profit-taking on during the day, but the early decline was more than recovered later with May selling up to 89 1/2¢, or 1/2¢ over the inside figure, and the rally on at 90¢. The market was higher on May and July contracts, with May at 89 1/2¢ and July at 90 1/2¢.

Remember

You'd better not forget to remember that about the middle of next week, or about the 20th of the month, I am moving into ground floor offices at 634 So. Spring St., where I expect to be doing business for the next dozen or two years.

You know folks, I'm out of the oil business for keeps, and I don't care if I never see another drilling rig. Really, I'm so fed up on the stuff that I even hate the smell of it. Why, I can't even use olive oil in my salad dressing anymore, I hate it so much. Even the smell of gasoline nauseates me now. Of course that does not apply to "Lightning Gas" or "Rainbow Oils" because they are so pure, there is no odor, and I guess that's why the "Corporation" is marketing around seventy-five thousand gallons a day now.

But, on the square, I'm off oil like a dirty shirt, and I wish to goodness the people that submit me a thousand oil propositions a week, would just forget that I ever saw an oil well, because I'm not interested for the good and handsome reason that I have a project on hand, that from a money-making standpoint, should make the biggest oil project look like a punched out meal ticket. So, just save your dimes and dollars until I give you the word to shoot, because even one dollar in this "New Wonder" of mine could make you a nice piece of change.

But, I'm not going to tell you about this baby for some time, yet, so, don't get impatient because it's a WHIZ and worth waiting for.

The Corporation agrees to refund, upon timely application as provided in the Mortgage, personal property tax paid by residents of Pennsylvania, California and Connecticut not in excess of four mills, and of Maryland not in excess of four and one-half mills, and of Kentucky not in excess of five mills, and of Kansas not in excess of two and one-half mills, and of the Massachusetts Income Tax not exceeding 6% per annum on income derived from these bonds.

Mr. Harry Allen, President of the Corporation, has summarized his letter to us as follows:

Business: United Clay Products Corporation will own thirty-two properties and a sales organization formerly belonging to twenty-eight brick and tile companies located in Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma. Average annual gross income of the thirty-two manufacturing units has been in excess of $4,200,000. The products manufactured by these companies, most of which have been operating continuously for a long number of years, include face brick, common brick, paving brick, hollow tile and drain tile.

All of the plants have excellent shipping facilities. Clay and shale deposits to be mined and used are given a very high quality rating and are believed to be ample for many years beyond the maturity of these bonds. Proximity to coal, oil and gas offers a flexible supply of economical fuel, and labor conditions are favorable in all respects.

Security: These First Mortgage 6 1/2% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds will be direct obligations of the Corporation and will be secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a closed first mortgage on all of the plants, real estate (including raw material deposits conservatively valued at $1,800,000) and other fixed assets included in the properties to be acquired as stated above. Appraisals of these properties as made by Southwestern Appraisal Company, independent appraisers, supplemented by appraisal of C. C. Johnson, Industrial Engineer, aggregate in excess of $8,000,000, or more than 2.80 times the principal amount of these bonds. In addition, net quick assets are more than $935,000.

As of September 30, 1925, after giving effect to financing, net tangible assets applicable to

These bonds are offered if, when and as received by and subject to the approval of our counsel. Legal details incident to this issue of bonds are being prepared by the Bankers, Attorneys for the Corporation by Southwestern Appraisal Company by C. C. Johnson, Industrial Engineer; audits by Haskins & Sells and Smith, Lunsford & Wright, Certified Public Accountants; and by C. C. Johnson, Industrial Engineer; and by C. C. Johnson, Industrial Engineer. It is expected that delivery in the first instance will be in the form of interim certificates to be made on or about January 27, 1926.

Un Timador se Encara con Keyes

Charles P. Dennison, alias Clayton Dorchester, maestro estafador, afrontó ayer tarde al Fiscal Keyes ante el gran jurado del condado de Los Angeles, para comparecer en la prisión de San Quentin, como acusado de robo.

El gran jurado, presidido por el juez de la prisión de San Quentin, coincidió con el planteamiento de Keyes ante el gran jurado, y este suceso se considera como el culminante en la investigación inicial de Dennison.

Richardson, quien ha acusado a algunas autoridades de Los Angeles de haber arrojado ácido a la cara de su marido, Elmer Hartz, joven actor del banco de Hoffman, fue citada ayer ante el juez de la causa, quien señaló el 3 del próximo Marzo para la vista de la causa. Durante su comparecencia, la señora Hartz se veda sumamente trastronada, y su defensor, S. S. Hahn, tuvo que auxiliarse al salir de la sala del juzgado.

Hace varias semanas topó la señora Hartz con su esposo, de quien había estado separada, frente al banco de Hoffman, que se halla en la esquina de las calles de Figueroa y Séptima, y se suplicó que volviera a vivir con ella. Como ella se rehusara, ella le lanzó al rostro el contenido de un frasco de ácido. La señora denunció su versión, y declara que ella intentó beberse el ácido; que su esposo trató de comenzar a empujarla, y que ella cayó a él el líquido en la cara.

BUNKO CONVICT

For almost three hours the county grand jury yesterday listened to the testimony of Charles F. Dennison, master bunko man, and now a convict in San Quentin prison, who came to Los Angeles to tell what he says are details of the gigantic bunko operations of his gang here in the past few years.

Dennison's appearance before the inquisitorial body furnished the high lights of the graft and vice protection investigation suggested to the grand jury by Gov. Richardson, and was climaxed by the personal appearance in the grand-jury room of Dist. Atty. Keyes, who was called in to face the man sent to the State's prison by him, and to hear some of the accusations made by him.

While every effort was made by the officials in charge to surround the entire affair with the secrecy prescribed by law, it was learned that Mr. Keyes's appearance in the grand-jury room provided a sensational episode and that Mr. Keyes was given an opportunity to listen to portions of the story laid before the grand jury.

Dennison, once a debonair, suave confidence man, and now much aged and older, emerged from the grand-jury room with a flushed cheeks and defiant look. Mr. Keyes, whose stay in the grand-jury chambers was much shorter, was smiling as he left the inner chambers and walked to his own office.

"The only thing I can say is that Dennison is a convict, whose word is not entitled to any consideration, and that he will stay in prison where he belongs so far as I am concerned, unless he is pardoned by the Governor or his parole board," was the only comment made by Mr. Keyes.

Neither Clayton R. Taylor, foreman, nor Alexander McKee Williams, chairman of the criminal complaints committee, would make any statement, as to what transpired behind the tightly closed doors.

Foreman Taylor said the grand jury is through with Dennison as a witness. The inquisitorial body will go into session at 10 a. m., today and will continue its investigation, he said. He refused to confirm or deny any of the numerous reports and rumors that flew thick and fast around the Hall of Justice during the day's activities.

One of those rumors was that the much-debated statement known to have been prepared by Dennison and Thomas P. Gere, another bunko man who was confined in the County Jail with Dennison, and whose mysterious death has been called to the attention of the grand jury in this investigation, was produced in yesterday's session and that Dennison went into its asserted details with the grand jury.

He refused to confirm or deny any of the numerous reports and rumors that flew thick and fast around the Hall of Justice during the day's activities.

One of those rumors was that the much-debated statement known to have been prepared by Dennison and Thomas P. Gere, another bunko man who was confined in the County Jail with Dennison, and whose mysterious death has been called to the attention of the grand jury in this investigation, was produced in yesterday's session and that Dennison went into its asserted details with the grand jury.

Persons connected with the investigation say that the statement

Dennison entered the jury room at 2:45 p. m. and remained there until shortly after 5 p. m. Dist. Atty. Keyes went before the inquisitorial body about 4:30 p. m. and remained until nearly 5 p. m. He refused to make any comment as to what transpired behind the closed doors when he came out of the room.

Dennison arrived at the Hall of Justice shortly after 10 a. m. He was in custody of Deputy Sheriff Dewar, who brought him from San Quentin on the morning train.

The order for Dennison's appearance in Los Angeles was signed by Judge Reeve on the 5th inst., and called for the convict's removal from the penitentiary to the jurisdiction of the grand jury.

Prior to being taken to the grand jury room the convicted bunko man was taken to breakfast and to the home of his wife where he was allowed to see her for a few minutes.

The Frank kiting case was being heard by the inquisitorial body when the bunko man entered the District Attorney's office. Deputy Sheriff Dewar placed Dennison in a witness room to await the call to the grand jury.

The convict readily posed for photographs and chatted amiably with the newspaper men. The debonair, suave air that characterized him on his return here from Salt Lake City at the time of his arrest was missing. He looked much heavier, his face lined and wrinkled. The daintily manicured fingernails that shone brightly as he toyed with his moustache points several years ago had been trimmed, and his fingers and hands showed callouses and evidences of hard work.

Dennison was willing to talk about his prison life and about other associated subjects, but very craftily avoided anything that led to facts or allegations in the present investigation.

"I'll fight it out with him in the grand-jury room," he said when the name of Dist. Atty. Keyes was mentioned. He appeared anxious to go in and take the witness chair. Facing nervously up and down the corridor of the grand jury quarters, he scanned the frosted glass doors of the grand-jury room for signs of activity.

CONFERS WITH FOREMAN
Witnesses in the Pasadena rose fete disaster, the Frank case, another check case and a hammer suit case pending before the grand jury crowded the five witness rooms facing the corridor. Dennison made his way to and fro apparently paying no attention to anyone else. At noon, Foreman Taylor emerged from the grand-jury room. There was a little confusion. Detectives and deputies were milling around Foreman Taylor.

Dennison elbowed his way to the foreman and announced his readiness to testify. After a brief consultation he left the building with Deputy Sheriff Dewar to appear at 2 p. m.

When the grand jury reconvened in the afternoon, Mrs. Dennison, the convict's wife, her 11-year-old daughter, and Mrs. Thomas P. Gere, widow of another bunko man whose name appears in the present investigation, were in the witness room with Dennison. They visited him for an hour and left shortly before he was called to the witness chair.

That Mr. Meyberg, then a young man eager for life and travel, came to Los Angeles from Alameda, Cal., in 1885, landing at New York. There he took a position as a salesman for the American Hat Manufacturing Co. He immediately went into the crockery business with a brother-in-law and since that day he has been ceaselessly active in business and civic affairs—by many means the oldest of the city's merchants in point of years.

ONLY VILLAGE THEN
Upon his arrival here Mr. Meyberg found a small, struggling community of some 8000 persons, with its business, social and entertainment heart centering about the Plaza. He immediately went into the crockery business with a brother-in-law and since that day he has been ceaselessly active in business and civic affairs—by many means the oldest of the city's merchants in point of years.

The first public step in the reorganization of the Mayor's Telephone Company was taken last night with the naming of seven men and women to an executive committee. The committee was directed to study the city's telephone rates, and with power to name subcommittees to study the various phases of the telephone problem.

Naming of the executive committee members, a suggestion that Los Angeles join with Boston in a fight to have the American Telephone and Telegraph Company declared a trust, ways by which the A. T. & T. through its subsidiaries, including the Southern California Telephone Company, is declared to be bilking subscribers throughout the nation, a brief outline of the measures considered for the moral support of surrounding communities and a general casting of the net were the features of the meeting, which was held in the ballroom of the Alexandria. Seventy-one persons were present, including newspaper men and, according to a roll call, eighteen outside communities were represented.

PERSONNEL OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, as announced by Chairman Mayor, is: John E. Richards, chairman of the executive committee; Dr. John R. Haynes, Dr. Laura M. Locke, Anthony Pratt, Kemper Campbell, L. R. Yankwich and S. A. Jubb. Mr. Richards was chairman of the original executive committee and Dr. Haynes and Dr. Locke were members of it.

Mayor Cryer was in the ballroom before the meeting convened, but left to attend a banquet. Mr. Richards told those present that for $75,000 Los Angeles can get a telephone system here if it cannot make money. He declared that 57 per cent of the gross receipts of the Southern California Telephone Company for 1925 went into the maintenance and depreciation accounts.

Addresses were made by Chairman Mayor, L. J. Higgins of San Diego, Ray L. Morrow of Glendale, Mr. McIlroy of Montebello, Mr. Hahn of Pasadena, City Attorney Walls of Beverly Hills, Kemper Campbell and George W. Sanborn, a citizen who said he was not sent as a representative of anybody.

Mr. Mayer said he would be in favor of measured service "at a commensurate rate" when the telephone companies supply subscribers with individual meters like the water and electric companies at the source of the calls. He said the dialling of measured service is the cheaper is apparent in his own business at Culver City where telephone bills jumped from $3300 for the period of six months under the old flat rate to $10,300 under the measured rate put in effect there six months ago.

RICH BACHELOR
DEATH SUSPECTSeized After Investigation of

Following Gay PartyPrisoner Had Keys to Rooms,
Detectives Charge

Walter J. Lintweller, 51 years of age, a member of a wealthy and socially prominent Los Angeles family, was placed under arrest on a suspicion of murder charge yesterday by detectives seeking a solution of the bizarre murder mystery of which Mrs. Nettie Nemets, wealthy widow was the victim.

The suspect, a well-to-do bachelor who had retired from active business about five years ago, was placed under arrest at the home of his parents at 2114 Crenshaw Boulevard. Immediately thereafter he was hurried to the University Station by Detective Lieutenants Lind and Sperry, heading the investigation, and placed incommunicado in a separate cell.

JEWELRY TAKEN
The arrest of Lintweller came as the climax to a ten-day investigation by the detectives which began with the finding of the widow's necklace, valued at $10,000, in her single room apartment at 1255 South Hope street. The discovery of the body served as a gruesome aftermath to a gay pre-nuptial party the preceding night and morning at the apartment house. She had participated in the affair and had seen the about-to-be bride and bridegroom off to be married about 4:30 a. m., December 31, last.

That was the last time she was seen alive. Her death at first was ascribed to natural causes but an autopsy by County Surgeon Wagner several days later disclosed that the woman had been strangled to death. The investigation into the weird murder case was helped at once by Detective Lieutenants Lind and Sperry, working in conjunction with Capt. Vernal of the University division and Capt. Bear at headquarters.

UNDER SUSPICION IN MURDER OF WIDOWSeized After Investigation of Widow's MurderWealthy Woman Strangled
Following Gay PartyPrisoner Had Keys to Rooms,
Detectives Charge

Walter J. Lintweller, 51 years of age, a member of a wealthy and socially prominent Los Angeles family, was placed under arrest on a suspicion of murder charge yesterday by detectives seeking a solution of the bizarre murder mystery of which Mrs. Nettie Nemets, wealthy widow was the victim.

The suspect, a well-to-do bachelor who had retired from active business about five years ago, was placed under arrest at the home of his parents at 2114 Crenshaw Boulevard. Immediately thereafter he was hurried to the University Station by Detective Lieutenants Lind and Sperry, heading the investigation, and placed incommunicado in a separate cell.

JEWELRY TAKEN
The arrest of Lintweller came as the climax to a ten-day investigation by the detectives which began with the finding of the widow's necklace, valued at $10,000, in her single room apartment at 1255 South Hope street. The discovery of the body served as a gruesome aftermath to a gay pre-nuptial party the preceding night and morning at the apartment house. She had participated in the affair and had seen the about-to-be bride and bridegroom off to be married about 4:30 a. m., December 31, last.

That was the last time she was seen alive. Her death at first was ascribed to natural causes but an autopsy by County Surgeon Wagner several days later disclosed that the woman had been strangled to death. The investigation into the weird murder case was helped at once by Detective Lieutenants Lind and Sperry, working in conjunction with Capt. Vernal of the University division and Capt. Bear at headquarters.

POSSIBLE KEY
The detectives revealed that Lintweller had been going with Mrs. Nemets with a view to buying them long enough," she told Judge Hardy, who heard her suit for divorce and granted her a decree. As to who will give her her beatings from now on, Mrs. Hanlon was more definite. "No one is ever going to beat me again," she said decidedly. "He's been doing that long enough."

BANKER NAMES PAIR AS BANDITS
Identifies Youths Suspected of Riverdale Hold-up
Two New Cars and Money
Bag Lead to Arrest
Third, Believed Wounded, to be Seized Soon
Milton Beck, 31 years of age,
and Melbourne Davis, 28, bandit suspects, arrested here on the 8th inst., with two
new autos, $20
in nickels and a revolver, were yesterday identified as two of the trio of band-
its who on December 23, last,
held up the Riverdale Bank in Riverdale, Cal.,
and escaped in
a fusillade of shots with $5000
in currency.
The identification was made
by Ray Williamson, manager of the bank, who accompanied Sheriff Jones of Fresno county here for that purpose. A money bag found in the possession of the suspects also was identified as the property of the bank.
The lengthy investigation which resulted in the identification yesterday was made by Detective Lieutenant Robinson and McCarron, working under assistant Captain of Detectives Cato in conjunction with members of the Sheriff's office. Beck and Davis were picked up
here at first
on suspicion of robbery. The possession of the two new cars, the money
bag and a blood-stained coat afforded
grounds for suspicion. The detectives later
learned that the cars were purchased with
part of the loot
taken from the northern bank. The coat, it is believed, belongs to the third member of the trio, who was thought to have been wounded in the shooting which occurred at the time of the robbery. This man is still at large, but because of his wounded condition the police and Sheriff's office contemplate his early arrest.
Jones and Mr. Williamson are scheduled to leave with the suspects tomorrow, following the arrival of the District Attorney of Fresno county, who was expected to arrive late yesterday with proper warrants for the two men.

RAIL CHIEF
TERMS CITY
METROPOLIS
Rock Island Vice-President Finds Every Proof Here of Solid and Rapid Growth
Solid and rapid growth of Los Angeles in the last four years has raised it from classification as a large town to a real metropolis
with every evidence of prosperity.
In the opinion of Stanley H. Johnson, vice-president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific road, who is combining pleasure with a routine business trip to the Pacific Coast from his offices in Chicago.
He is accompanied by Mrs. Johnson.
Second only to the noticeable growth and progress of the city, in the mind of the visiting executive,
is appreciation of Los Angeles' sunshine and attendant warm weather,
a welcome contrast to the present
ice-locked, subzero weather of the Middle West.
"In the four years since my last visit here," Johnson said last night at the Biltmore, "Los Angeles has certainly made great forward strides. This is not only true in increased population, but attendant construction programs of a prosperous nature. Los Angeles is today a well-built metropolis
and we of the East who are in constant touch with it are well aware of the fact."
Further evidence of the prosperity of Los Angeles and Southern California is evinced in the yearly increase in freight traffic
from this section, according to Johnson, who is in charge of the freight traffic division of the Rock Island.
"The Rock Island has nothing to say in regard to the proposed union station here as that is a matter of home rule alone," Johnson stated. "We have no direct line into Los Angeles, taking our business from the Southern Pacific, so can say nothing of a matter that pertains to them and not to us."
On his present trip, Johnson
came to the West Coast by way of Seattle, Portland and San Francisco and he has found throughout that territory, as well as in Southern California and all other parts of the country excellent indications of continued business prosperity.
NEW YORK MAN SOUGHT AFTER VANISHING HERE
Los Angeles police have received a message from New York's police department asking them to try to locate Matthew J. Barrett of that city, who was last heard from here August 18, last. His brother, Lawrence P. Barrett of New York, stated he had come here by sea to undergo treatment for heart trouble. The missing man is said to have had $2000 when he landed here and his brother fears he is critically ill in a hospital or has met with foul play. Detective Lieutenant Stewart was detailed to investigate.
OVERTIME BAN MODIFIED
The City Council's ban on overtime payments to city employees
was lifted slightly yesterday when the Council directed that overtime
can be paid to garbage collectors,
public works inspectors, machine-
shop employees and street-maintenance workers. This action was requested by the Board of Public Works.

IN ADVANCE OF PARIS STYLE
Dona Fluke demonstrates a Los Angeles-made bathing suit at semiannual Associated Apparel Manufacturers' Show at which the latest in women's fashions for every occasion are being exhibited.
SARTORIAL EXHIBIT OPENS
Associated Apparel Manufacturers Demonstrate That
Los Angeles Takes No Back Seat on Modes
Women who buy Los Angeles-made raiment may congratulate themselves that they're dressed in the height of fashion, perhaps even a lap or two ahead of stylish Paris, according to the fashion experts attending the semiannual show of the Associated Apparel Manufacturers, which opened at the Biltmore yesterday and will continue today and tomorrow.
The show is conducted to inform the clothing dealers and general public of the Southwest what's going to be what in wearing apparel and millinery during the spring months of the present year.
Some eighty exhibitors, most of them Los Angeles manufacturers, are displaying their goods, which include everything from women's wear from sandals to combs.
"There's no question that Los Angeles has arrived as a style
center," said Eugene A. Holmes, secretary of the association. "In a large measure the motion-picture
industry at Hollywood is responsible for this. The world of fashion observes the clothing of the stars
closely and largely takes its style
clues from the stars."
While it appears that creations designed here set the pace in all lines of women's apparel, Mr.
Holmes stressed especially the developments in sports clothing.
The designing and making of sports apparel has been developed to a fine art," he commented. "This is partly due to the climatic conditions prevailing here, which make the wearing of sports clothing possible the year around. The colorful environment also contributes its share toward making sports wear popular in this section.
Among palms, poinsettias and blooming orange trees sports garments are in perfect harmony with the surroundings, but they would be out of place entirely if the background consisted of snowdrifts and denuded vegetation.
Speaking of the styles that will prevail during the coming season,
Mr. Holmes referred among other things, to the additional abbreviation of skirts. They will be fully two inches shorter than last season," he said. "But the short skirt has been banished. Sleeves this year will be long and in their construction material will be used lavishly. Also, dresses will be equipped with necks, high ones.
There will be no more exposure of wishbones."
Bright colors will prevail in all
garments with red predominating.
Contrasts in colors also will be sought, especially in red and black.
Green will be popular for many kinds of outdoor wear. Some of the names for the shades appearing for the first time this year
are intriguing, among them love-bird green and cuckoo, which is a very dark brown, almost black.
Bathing-suit styles, which often have come in for censure, will take a new turn this season, which will be an improvement, according to their advocates. Girls will wear bathing suits of the style
heretofore affected only by their brothers.
The fashion show given in the ball-room of the Biltmore last night brought out several thousand men and women who crowded every available bit of space. Smart models for every occasion were shown and the wearers won salvos of applause from the interested audience.
Especially novel were the bathing suits, radical in both design
and color.
The blouse appears to be the prevailing mode for sports wear,
yet few were shown with highcollared, and nearly all were
of the straight, unbelted design.
The slim silhouette is retained,
though more freedom is given in the width of the skirt, kick pants
being introduced at front, back or sides.

A LITTLE CANDY-TALK TO MOTHERS

The doctor agrees that of all the wholesome sweets in this wide candy-world, nothing equals pure milk chocolate for children.

Every child, he realizes, gets a "sweet tooth" as part of its birthright. And children—why little urchins that they are—are going to satisfy that "sweet tooth" somehow. Why not (the doctor reasons) give them something that meets their craving for sweets and supplies real nourishment as well?

Pure milk chocolate—that's his professional answer! More and more thinking parents are finding it their answer too! Once their children form the habit of asking for Ghirardelli's Milk Chocolate—the child-candy problem solves itself.

What makes Ghirardelli's Milk Chocolate pure nutrition? Pure whole milk (not powdered or skim milk), pure sugar and pure chocolate—nothing else! That's why your children are candy-sure and stomach-safe every time they say "Gear-ar-delly."

EXERCISES FOR HEALTH
of you who are reduced to a feeble state, begin to increase your strength, not only because it is good for you to reduce, but because vigorous exercises every day are necessary to keep you normal.

For the reasons for this, we have not been used to exercise, we begin with a few simple exercises at first and a few more at a time until you are able to do them with ease. You will find yourself extended in your exercise period. If you have some organs that are under a physician's care, you should expect a special exercise program.

There is one exercise that is not only good for the body, but also for the mind. It is walking briskly. Walking is one of the best of all exercises. If you have a long way to go, plan to walk. It is a good idea to walk into it! Don't expect results—in a hurry.

Can you reduce by exercise without limiting your caloric intake? Yes, you can; but you must have a good reason for it. You must have a good reason for it. You must have a good reason for it.

COUNTY CUTS FIRE HAZARD

Unprecedented Success Meets Warden's Efforts

Menace Reduced 50 Per Cent Within Five Years

Extent of Conflagrations Also Shows Decrease

Constant efforts of the County Fire Warden's office to curb fires of all kinds in Los Angeles county have met with almost unprecedented success, it was indicated yesterday in figures compiled by Assistant Fire Warden Davis, who stated the number of fires coming within the jurisdiction of the department had been practically cut 50 per cent in five years.

A chart prepared by Davis showed the office attended 355 fires in 1921 as against 133 last year. Of the number listed, 210 occurred in county territory in 1921 and 121 in 1925. Other blazes included in the list were outside county territory but were attended by the County Fire Warden's office in the interests of safeguarding property of Southern California.

The fire menace reached its peak in 1923 when 422 fires were attended by the department. In 1924 marked a drastic reduction in the number of fires, while the figure of 133 in 1925 was the minimum established during the five-year period.

A marked decrease in the number of large forest and brush fires also shown in the statement. In 1923 there were fifty-six fires that burned over from ten to fifty acres; in 1925 there were but ten twenty-two conflagrations burned over from fifty to 100 acres each during 1925 while only two of like dimensions were reported for last year.

There were thirty-three fires of from 100 to 500 acres each in 1923 as against one for 1925; three of from 500 to 1000 acres in 1923 and none in 1925; three of from 1000 to 1500 acres in 1923 as against one in 1925. This latter blaze was the largest to occur in the jurisdiction of the department in 1925. During the previous four years there was a total of sixteen fires burning over from 1500 to 10,000 acres each in the county. The list did not include fires in Federal forest reserves in the county.

The fires listed in the chart included those of unknown origin, those started by neglected campfires, cigars and cigarettes; brush and rubbish fires, fires of incendiary origin and others caused by stoves and heaters, locomotives, gas engine sparks, children playing with matches, bee smoking, fireworks, blasting, oil and gas, electric short circuits and lightning.

Film Director Settles With Divorced Wife

An aged controversy between George J. Somerville, director of the film destiny of Andy Gump, and his former wife, Jerry Agnes Somerville, was brought to a conclusion yesterday when Judge Holzer signed an order settling their alimony issue. Somerville agreed to pay Mrs. Somerville $4000 in four quarterly payments of $1000 each as a final settlement of all her claims against him.

Several years ago a decree of divorce was entered, whereby Mrs. Somerville was granted a weekly allowance. She had cited Somerville for being in arrears on this payment. The divorce settlement was negotiated out of court.

FILM ACTOR MIGRATING TO GERMANY

Wyndham Standing Certain Possibilities Abroad Are Looming Brightly

Possibility of an Americanized Englishman invading the German film fields became imminent yesterday with the appearance of Wyndham Standing in the United States District Court clerk's office on a mission of inquiry concerning passports and regulations.

Standing was born in England and like his father, Herbert Standing, carved a niche in the hall of fame created for the legitimate stage. The younger man then entered films and for twelve years was leading man for some of the most important screen companies of America.

Yesterday Standing implied that the possibilities of German films were promising. He was granted a weekly allowance. She had cited Somerville for being in arrears on this payment. The divorce settlement was negotiated out of court.

He was accompanied to the Federal Building by Leslie Eveleigh, an English cinematographer.

ROBBER HOLDS UP LOCAL BANK

Sixth-Street Institution Plundered by Bandit

Desperado Scoops Up $1956 Lying on Counter

Teller and Book-keeper Only Employees on Duty

A courteous, efficient thief stepped into the Pacific-Southern Trust and Savings Bank branch at 1515 West Sixth street shortly before noon, brandished a pistol in the astonished faces of two employees, pawed a large wad of currency from the counter and mysteriously vanished in the heavy traffic of West Sixth street.

He came in while H. W. Avey, the manager, was out of the building and no customers were present. He thrust a blue-steel .38-caliber pistol before the eyes of J. Smith, the teller, and ordered him to step back, but not to elevate his hands.

Miss Gordia Sanford, the book-keeper, was advised to sit down if she wished. Miss Sanford did. Then he scooped up $1956 which was lying on the counter and which he could reach by stretching his hand through the grill.

How he escaped has not been determined. Deputy Sheriff Heller and Johnson and Detectives Stanger and Isaac, of Wilshire Division, were unable to determine the exact time of the robbery. Presumably he had a confederate outside in an automobile in which he mingled in the maze of vehicles, they said.

EXCITEMENT RIFE The robbery precipitated no end of excitement in the vicinity. The master barber left his shop, a few feet from the bank, and came hurrying back with the astounding news that the bank had been stuck up.

The taxi driver on the stand outside deplored the fact that a fare took him away from his station and robbed him of the chance to distinguish himself in a daredevil chase. The boss of the neighboring cleaning establishment was grateful that the robber had not seen fit to steal any of his patrons' furs.

The bandit was described as being an American type, about 25 years of age, five feet, ten inches tall, weighing 140 pounds, of dark complexion, wearing a brown suit and a light gray cap.

YELLOW CAB COMPANY UP FOR HEARING

Complaint Charges Refusal to Haul Passengers from Railway Stations

The Board of Public Utilities will conduct a special hearing tomorrow morning to investigate complaints that drivers of the Yellow Cab Company's vehicles will not take passengers from the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe stations.

The complaint, signed by B. F. Harris, asks that the cab company be ordered to show cause why its depot licenses should not be revoked.

It further sets forth that taxicab drivers have stated that in refusing to take passengers from the stations or immediate vicinity they are obeying orders from the owners under threat of dismissal for violations.

The Public Utilities department, according to Secretary Payne, has not been furnished with any reason for the action. If it is true, and has notified the proprietors of the company to be present at the hearing to make a statement and defend the charge or make an explanation.

Local agents for the company declined to venture any reasons for the order and referred all questions to the new San Francisco owners, D. Newton and A. O. Smith.

PETITION CHECKING COMPLETED

Venue Dance Proponents Need 10,745 More Names to Insure Election

City Clerk Dominguez last night completed official checking of the Venice Sunday-dancing petition, and announced that out of a total of 29,333 signers, only 15,307 represented bona fide electors of the city of Los Angeles, or a percentage of but 9 1/2 per cent. The total of names found to be defective was 14,026. The required number to reach the 15 per cent necessary was 24,052.

Supporters of Sunday dancing are allowed an additional ten days starting today in which to file a supplemental petition.

Should the supporters of the movement succeed in obtaining the necessary signatures, the City Council will be forced either to allow Sunday dancing at Venice by a special ordinance or submit the question to a special election.

Burger, Imperial Potentate of the Mystic Shrine of America, will arrive thirty minutes later and receive similar attention.

Ray S. La Barre of San Francisco, the new member, was named president; Henry Duncan McFarland of Los Angeles, vice-president, and James Compton of Sacramento was re-elected secretary. Westlake Park Bridge Urged in Wilshire Plans

The Major Highways Committee of the Traffic Commission yesterday notified the City Council that there will soon be filed at the City Hall a petition from property owners asking that proceedings be started for the opening and widening of Wilshire Boulevard (formerly Orange street) from Alvarado street to Olive street.

The committee declared that if the opening and widening proceedings are started, they should include a bridge across Westlake Park linking Wilshire Boulevard west of the park with the widened section from Olive street to Alvarado street. The bridge, the committee said, should be wide enough to be adequate for vehicular and pedestrian traffic and should be an ornamental structure. The committee's letter said that the proposed plan of widening Wilshire Boulevard east of Alvarado street provides for a lowering of the grade of Wilshire Boulevard so as to meet the needs of traffic.
